1	This service is INCREDIBLE. So useful for all the time we spend on the road doing "nothing" traveling to and from visits with kids. It makes that time seem so much less wasteful when there is the option to get some dictation of notes done while traveling.	2/13/2017 3:11 PM

1	Use Speakwrite in between visits.	2/15/2017 6:07 PM
2	We should have this at our disposal on an on-going basis. Saving the hotline number in your phone helps for dialing while traveling so you don't have to type as much in.	2/13/2017 3:11 PM
3	use the app and include all services such as fpm's, various meetings, etc	2/9/2017 7:27 AM
4	Did not like the procedure that required calling the phone line, then entering the account number and password, then pressing another button to start recording. However, it was very easy and efficient to use the SpeakWrite app. It was very simple to record and more convenient. Personal opinion is that workers will be lot more satisfied with using the app rather than the dialing procedure.	2/8/2017 11:41 AM
5	One of the best ways this program has saved me time is being able to use Speakwrite when I'm driving to far away worker visits. What would have previously been five useless hours in the car, becomes the perfect time to do worker visits. I've also found that getting all of my dictation in for the day at the same time saves the most time (i.e. first thing in the morning, or at the end of the day).	2/7/2017 11:53 AM
6	Calling while traveling immediately after conducting a worker visit, or interviewing a child/client helps out with documentation time at the office.	2/7/2017 11:38 AM

1	YESSS! I add SO much more detail verbally. Hard to keep the same flow but it gets easier with practice.	2/13/2017 3:11 PM
2	I was able to call in quickly following my home visit when all the information was fresh in my mind. It allowed me to take the time to talk through the details of the visit to thoroughly document what occurred in a timely way.	2/13/2017 8:19 AM
3	It saves time from having to type lengthy notes.	2/13/2017 7:53 AM
4	Documentation was thorough and detailed as I was able to call in directly after meetings.	2/10/2017 10:09 AM
5	Worker was able to record immediately after work was performed. It was easier for worker to include all the details since they were fresh in memory. And it did not require talking hand written notes.	2/8/2017 11:41 AM
6	I did not feel rushed to complete it, and was able to complete documentation in times that I normally wouldn't, such as while out in the field.	2/8/2017 8:23 AM
7	The app is convenient and you helps organize cases.	2/7/2017 2:29 PM
8	Like I said above, I feel like I was able to add more details.	2/7/2017 2:11 PM
9	It allows me to immediately enter notes from client interactions. This has greatly increased the accuracy of my notes.	2/7/2017 11:56 AM
10	I'm not rushing through my dictation anymore. Before Speakwrite, dictation could easily take an hour or two a day, and that got exhausting, so as the day wore on, my notes weren't as good. I now spend 20 minutes maximum getting all of my dictation in, and I can fit it in while driving or waiting on appointments. Time that used to be wasted is now time that I can use, and having more time means I don't rush as much and that my casenotes are more thorough.	2/7/2017 11:53 AM

3	In the two and a half years I have been doing foster care, the state has continued to add more and more requirements to what we are expected to do, without taking anything away or giving us tools to get more done. Speakwrite changes that. This program is the first time I've felt like the state was recognizing how unbearable our workloads can be, and instead of lecturing workers for not getting things done, actually gave us something that would help us do our jobs. This program not only saves me time and helps me get my notes in faster, it makes me a better social worker and lets me spend my work day doing social work and serving my clients instead of being stuck behind a computer. Social workers need this program. Our clients need us to have this program.	2/7/2017 11:53 AM
